

/CHərCH/

church /CHərCH/, n., pl. -es

i. a building used for public Christian worship.

"they came to church with me"

ii. a body of believers intended to be a movement that changes the world.

Acts 15:19

It is my judgment, therefore, that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God.

Bold Invitations

While Jesus was having dinner at Levi's house, many tax collectors and sinners were eating with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.

-Mark 2:15

Bold Volunteering

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

-Mark 10:45

Bold Giving

Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this, says the Lord Almighty, and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it.

-Malachi 3:10

Bold Prayer

This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us. And if we know that he hears us—whatever we ask—we know that we have what we asked of him.

-1 John 5:14-15

Acts 28:30-31

For two whole years Paul stayed there in his own rented house and welcomed all who came to see him. He proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ—with all boldness and without hindrance!
