John 5:28

Do not be astonished at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in their graves will hear his voice and will come out—those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of condemnation.

Matthew 12:36-37

I tell you, on the day of judgment you will have to give an account for every careless word you utter; for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.

Matthew 16:27

For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done.

Luke 21:23

Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress on the earth and wrath against this people.

John 3:36

Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever disobeys the Son will not see life, but must endure God's wrath.

Dallas Willard

To love is to will the good of another; it's not primarily an emotion. Love is a desire for the well-being of another, so much so that personal sacrifice would not stand in its way.
