

Definition of a Self-Feeding Christian

1. Has expressed a living faith in Christ and securely knows it.
2. Chooses to separate his/her life from sin and follow Christ as Lord.
3. Is growing in the knowledge and application of the Bible.
4. Experiences a close and passionate relationship with Christ, resulting in a life with a living purpose and direct answers to prayer.
5. Is properly related to a local church through membership, stewardship and responsibility.
6. Is able to share the living faith with others and lead them to ministry.

Assurance

Lordship

God's

Word

Communion

Attachment

Witness